

Dollar Compensation Statements will be Exhibiting at the 2014 SHRM Conference in Orlando

Atlanta, Georgia, March 19, 2014 – Dollar Compensation Statements received incredibly positive feedback from the 2012 and 2013 Society for Human Resources Management Conference attendees and we will be exhibiting again at the 2014 conference in Orlando. Visit us in booth 244.

DollarCompensationStatements.com offers a revolutionary web-based total reward statement generator that is changing the way companies create high impact total reward statements. Our self-service statement generator allows employers and benefits brokers to create personalized total reward statements for as low as $1 to $2 per personalized print-ready statement. Our straight forward pricing approach makes it cost effective to provide personalized total reward statements to companies of all sizes. We have:

- No set up fee
- No minimum order
- No wait
- No risk — preview before you pay

The “hidden paycheck” doesn’t have to stay hidden. The total rewards package employers provide their employees is one of their biggest expenses, yet employees don’t recognize the cost of health benefits and other perks as part of their total reward package. We provide an inexpensive solution for employers of all sizes. Employers can:

- Customize their introduction letter
- Brand with their logo
- Create statements with attention-grabbing charts
- Eliminate lead times — statements are print ready in minutes
- Pay a lot less

The self-service functionality is easy to use, you:

- Select your statement
- Upload your customized data
- Preview your statements
- Pay
- Print
